Help us, St. Germaine, to believe with child-like faith in the presence and work of the Holy Trinity, with His angels and saints, all around us and in our daily lives. Pray that our eyes will be open to Jesus' presence and that he will clothe us with his light. Pray, St. Germaine, that the ordinary moments of life will be pierced by the extraordinary grace of the living and powerful Holy Spirit, through Jesus, to the glory of the Father. As we honor who you are in Jesus, and thank him for holding you up as a beautiful gift of his love, pray that our Heavenly Father would paint himself into the imperfections and simplicity of our own lives. Saint Germaine, pray for us.
